CDCN can terminate an Employee's CDCN employment without your permission.

2. Supervise, Manage and Dismiss Employees:

- Schedule Employees to provide approved tasks and services outlined in the Member's Care Plan.

- You do not follow the policies and procedures in the Member manual.
- The Member's health and safety needs are not met under the program.
- Compliance is not maintained with timesheet requirements and CDCN procedures.

Indemnification: You are in the best position to oversee your Employees' actions when they are working for You. Due to this, You agree to indemnify CDCN. This means that if your Employees cause property damages or a legal dispute while working for You, You are responsible for paying any damages and legal fees assessed against CDCN. CDCN is also not responsible for Employees' theft of personal belongings. CDCN is not liable for your Employees' actions and damages incurred.

Duration and Modification of Agreement: The Agreement starts when it is signed by You and CDCN. It can be changed. Changes must be in writing, signed and dated by both Parties. The Agreement may be ended by either party. You agree that ending the Agreement means services from CDCN will stop.

MEMBER SERVICE AGREEMENT

State Law: If Parties cannot solve a problem through negotiation or talking about the problem, then Wisconsin laws apply. Any legal action related to this Agreement must be held in the county where CDCN is located.

Partial Invalidity: If part of this Agreement is found to be wrong, it does not mean the whole Agreement is not correct. The rest of the Agreement must be followed.

Arbitration: A dispute about this Agreement is handled by an independent arbitrator at the location of the dispute. Parties will split the cost of the arbitrator. Each Party will handle their own legal fees. Parties may agree to another arbitration process.

Timely Notification: Both Parties agree to notify each other in a timely manner about the duties in this Agreement.

Termination: This Agreement can end in three ways:

- Mutual Agreement - Both Parties can agree in writing to end the Agreement at any time.
- Termination Without Cause - Either Party can end the Agreement with a 30-day written notice for any reason or no reason. Also, if the Member's relationship with the Approving Entity ends, this Agreement is terminated.
- Termination for Cause - Either Party can end the Agreement with written notice if a policy or procedure established by the Approving Entity is not being followed. Notice must include the policy(s) that is not being followed by the other Party.

Assignment: CDCN may sell, assign or transfer this Agreement to another provider without notice. The new owner will have the same rights, benefits, and duties in this Agreement. If this happens, You will receive written notice about the new owner. Medicaid rules do not allow You to assign this Agreement to someone else.

Workers Compensation Program: You and your Employee must follow CDCN's safety program rules. If not, work-related injuries may be denied coverage under the Workers' Compensation program.

Entire Agreement: This Agreement and other written materials describe the complete understanding between You and CDCN. Any verbal agreements do not apply. All agreements must be put in writing.

F. Conclusion:

This Agreement is between You and CDCN. It is not a contract/guarantee of employment for Employees. CDCN does not control or direct how You or the Employees perform duties and responsibilities. You are the direct (managing) employer. You are responsible for recruiting, training and supervising Employees. You are also responsible for monitoring your approved budget and not overspending.

By signing, the Parties agree to follow the Responsibilities and Terms and Conditions stated above.
